COOLIDGE SEEKS DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

SPECIAL MESSAGE WAS GIVEN TODAY TO CONGRESS

REQUESTS INCLUSION OF FURTHER NAVAL DISARMAMENT
IN AGENDA OF FORTHCOMING
GENEVA ARMS CONFERENCE

Washington, Feb. 10.—(UP)—President Coolidge today proposed to the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, that limitations of cruisers, destroyers and submarines be discussed at the forthcoming Geneva arms conference.

In a message to congress today, he revealed that he had requested inclusion of further naval disarmament in the agenda of the forthcoming Geneva arms conference.

Washington, Feb. 10.—President Coolidge today proposed to the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, that limitations of cruisers, destroyers and submarines be discussed at the forthcoming Geneva arms conference.

Hugh S. Gibson, newly appointed ambassador to Belgium, hitherto representing the United States at preparatory commission meetings, would be the United States' delegate to the new conference, if it is arranged. The preparatory commission is scheduled to meet at Geneva March 21.

The president sent to congress a message announcing presenting of his proposal to the powers, through the American ambassadors to the nations involved.

Cruisers, destroyers and submarines were not limited by agreements reached at the Washington disarmament conference in 1922.

The president said:

"Pursuant to my instructions, the U. S. ambassadors at London, Paris, Rome and Tokyo will today present to the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, a memorandum suggesting that they empower their delegates at the forthcoming meeting at Geneva to negotiate and conclude at an early date an agreement further limiting naval armaments, supplementing the Washington treaty on that subject, and covering the classes of vessels not covered by that treaty.

In setting forth this government's policy regarding the proposed arms limitation, the memorandum to foreign governments, enclosed in the president's message to congress, said:

"The Washington government feels that the general principle of the Washington treaty offers a suitable basis for further discussion among its signatories.

"Although hesitating at this time to put forward recent rigid proposals as regards the ratio of naval strength to be maintained by the different powers, the American government, for its part, is disposed to accept, in regard to this class of vessels, not covered by the Washington treaty and extension of the 5-5-3 ratio as regards the United States, Great Britain and Japan, and to leave to discussion at Geneva, the ratios of France and Italy, taking into full account their special condition and requirements in regard to the type of vessels in question.

"Ratios for capital ships and aircraft carriers were established by that treaty which would not be effected in any way by an agreement covering other classes of ships.

"The American representations at the forthcoming meeting at Geneva will, of course, participate fully in the discussion looking to the preparation of an agenda for a final general conference for the limitation of armaments. In addition, they will have full powers to negotiate definitely regarding measures for further naval limitations, and if they are able to reach agreement with the representatives of the other signatories of the Washington treaty, to conclude a convention embodying such agreement, in tentative or final form as may be found practicable.

"The American government earnestly hopes that the institution of such negotiations at Geneva may be agreeable to the governments of the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, and that comprehensive limitation of all types of naval armaments may be brought into effect by the principal naval powers without delay."

London, Feb. 10.—President Coolidge's suggestion to congress suggesting that the time had come to seek further limitation of naval armament was delivered today by the respective American ambassadors to the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan.

FIRST WOMAN SOLON IN HISTORY OF THE STATE

MRS. OSCAR A. NAPLIN TO PRESENT CREDENTIALS ON MONDAY

SUCCEEDS TO SEAT LEFT VACANT UPON DEATH OF HER HUSBAND

Thief River Falls, Minn., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Mrs. Oscar A. Naplin, scarcely rested from the whirlwind campaign which won her the senatorial seat left vacant upon the death of her husband, will present her credentials in the upper house Monday as the first woman solon in the history of Minnesota.

Final count revealed that Mrs. Naplin had defeated Marius Waldal by 392 votes. When all the ballots had been tabulated the widow of Oscar Naplin had 2,939 while Waldal had 2,547.

The woman senator declared she would strive to carry on the work of her husband which was halted upon his death in St. Paul shortly after the legislature had begun its present session.

Born in South Dakota 34 years ago, Mrs. Naplin came to Minnesota with her parents in 1900. After completing her early education in Marshall county followed by a course in normal school, she taught school for several years.

Mrs. Naplin goes to the senate fortified by the knowledge she gained as her husband's secretary and campaign manager. She has one child, a five year old daughter.

TAKE TESTIMONY IN TRIAL OF BEN RUDNER

Canton, O., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Taking of testimony began today in the trial of Ben Rudner, millionaire bootlegger, who the state charges was the chief of an underworld coterie which plotted the assassination of Don R. Mellett, crusading editor.

The jury of eight women and four men, completed late yesterday, was taken on a tour of scenes important in the murder trial and at the opening of court today heard statements of attorneys, outlining the cases to be offered by the defense and the state.

The prosecution will be conducted along the same lines as that which resulted in the conviction of Pat McDermott for Mellett's death. Presentation of the state's case will take about a week, according to Henry Harter, Jr., county prosecutor.

The defense will seek to prove an alibi and enter a general denial to charges of state witnesses. Rudner contends he did not know McDermott.

REVOLUTIONISTS SURRENDERED AT LISBON LAST NIGHT

GOVERNMENT REPORTS SUPPRESSING SEDITION THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY

TROOPS OF GOVERNMENT BOMBARDED THE MARINE ARSENAL

Lisbon, Feb. 10.—(UP)—The revolutionists surrendered at Lisbon at eight o'clock last night, and the government reported it had suppressed sedition throughout the country.

The Lisbon revolutionary committee communicated to the government their surrender. Two hours later they were arrested.

The rebels surrendered during the bombardment by the government troops of the marine arsenal, the last stand of the rebels.

After the surrender, the night was quiet and today commercial life in the capital was resumed. The telegraph office, which had been closed since Monday evening, opened again and accepted messages.

The rebels at Oporto surrendered unconditionally Monday at 2 P. M., after government forces, reinforced by troops from the steamship Infante Sagres, penetrated the rebel stronghold and routed the defenders.

It was reported 120 civilians were among the killed and a vast number were wounded. The rebel leaders, Moraes and Cortezao, were reported to have committed suicide when they found their cause hopeless.

Details of the casualties were contradictory. One report said the first regiment of cavalry lost 35 men in storming the rebel stronghold.

Oporto was entirely in the government's hands by 4 P. M. Monday.

London, Feb. 10.—The report of the surrender of the revolutionists at Lisbon was the first message to pass the censorship since Monday evening and presumably presents the government's version.

Prior to the receipt of the direct announcement from Lisbon of the surrender of the revolutionists there, dispatches received here gave details of fighting in many sections of Portugal.

A dispatch to the Daily News said a general railroad strike had been declared and added the following details:

The historic old city of Evora, surrounded by ramparts, was shelled by government troops for 16 hours. The loss was estimated at 100 dead, 300 wounded and many important public buildings, hotels and houses destroyed.

Furnished arms and ammunition by the rebels, the citizens of the ancient town with its aqueduct and remains of a temple of Diana built by a Roman general, stormed and attempted to seize the barracks. Evora, which has more than once been a royal residence, is 85 miles southeast of Lisbon.

In Lisbon, government troops fired on the rebellious capital with 20 machine guns mounted on the Dona Maria bridge. One shell killed 20 revolutionists and wounded civilians, many of whom were aiding the revolutionists by hurling grenades at the government troops.

The populace was reported panic stricken and hundreds fled from the city in yachts, steam launches and even in rowboats up the Tagus river.

The rebel forces at the capital were trained fighters, comprising hundreds of sailors, two regiments of infantry, and three companies of trench guards. They were entrenched both inside and outside the naval arsenal, and the crews aboard the warships in the harbor refused to fire on the rebels. Shops were closed and streets deserted.

The dispatch also reported heavy fighting at Campolido and Braso de Prasa and an acute food shortage at Gaia.

The fighting at Oporto, the second city of the country, cost 200 lives and many wounded, according to estimates of a traveler from Oporto given to the Daily Mail's Vigo correspondent. Corpses were left on the street for several days.

FIRE AT HOME CAUSES DEATH OF 5 KIDDIES

Sault Ste Marie, Mich., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Fire starting from an overheated stove caused the death of five children at Sault Ste Marie, near here, today.

Three of the children were burned to death as they lay in their beds.

Harry Trimble, his wife, and one child made their way out of the flaming house after a heroic attempt to save the other children.

The fire had practically gutted the lower floor of the house before the Trimbles were awakened. The father picked up Margaret, 8, and Robert, 5, and ran down the stairs. He tripped and the children were thrown into the flames.

The mother, with a three-year-old child in her arms, leaped from an upstairs window into a snowbank.

The bodies of three other children were found in their beds after the flames had been extinguished.

SEEKS 'UNDER COVER' MEN TO AID ENFORCEMENT

Washington, Feb. 10.—(UP)—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today asked congress for "under-cover" activities in enforcement work.

The secretary sent to the house and senate a draft of a bill which authorizes expenditure of treasury funds, with the approval of the president, for use of "special disbursing agents in under-cover work."

Congress refused to allow an appropriation of $500,000 for under-cover work in the regular treasury appropriation.

In the Grand hotel at Oporto was wrecked by a bomb five minutes after he left the room. The furniture in the room was smashed.

Lisbon, Feb. 10.—Sixty known dead in Lisbon and probably 150 dead in Oporto today were reckoned as the greatest cost of the revolution against the Carmona dictatorship which the government this morning announced had been suppressed.

It was estimated that 850 persons had been wounded in Oporto and Lisbon, 500 of the injuries having been reported in the capital.

The government announcement said the rebels at Lisbon had surrendered unconditionally at 8 P. M. yesterday.

The Argentine consulate was among the many buildings damaged by gun fire in Lisbon.

REPORTS SO CIRCULATED IN SENATE CHAMBER

ANOTHER RUMOR THAT PRESIDENT MAY USE VETO AS CAMPAIGN ISSUE

CHAIRMAN McNARY CONFIDENT COOLIDGE WILL SIGN FARM RELIEF BILL

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 10.—With reports being circulated in the senate chamber that President Coolidge will veto the pending farm price stabilization bill, farm bloc members today threatened retaliatory steps.

The unofficial word said to come direct from the White House, was given credence by republican leaders who think Mr. Coolidge will refuse to sign the McNary-Haugen bill and will go to the country next year for re-election on the issue.

Many republican members of the farm bloc met this development with a threat to campaign for another republican presidential nominee immediately. There was even talk of offering a resolution to the senate expressing its sense that no president should seek a "third" term.

Senate leaders and most members of the farm bloc, were inclined to credit the veto prediction. It was pointed out that it has long been the practice of the president to "cross the politicians" and appeal directly to the people. They believe that in accordance with his previous declarations against this type of legislation and regardless of the political exigencies of the occasion, he will decline to affix his signature.

This view is shared by practically all of the republican senate group with the exception of Chairman McNary of the senate agriculture committee and co-author of the bill. He adheres to his belief that the president will sign it.

The information caused consternation among many senate republicans. None wished to be placed in the position of criticizing the chief executive before he acts, but one midwestern republican told the United Press:

"The moment President Coolidge vetoes this bill, I know of at least eight republican senators besides myself who will go out to campaign against him and in favor of some other candidate."

Contrary to the general belief, this senator said the group of eight would not campaign for former Gov. Frank O. Lowden, Illinois, who has endorsed the farm bill. No candidate has yet been picked by the group, he said. Vice President Dawes and Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, who are supporting the farm bill, also are in line with Lowden to receive this support.

The bill came up simultaneously in both houses this afternoon. Debate was begun in the house under a rule which will permit twelve hours of discussion before a vote is taken, probably Monday. In the senate a limitation of debate goes into effect at 2 P. M. allowing no senator to speak longer than 15 minutes.

The senate will vote upon the bill at 4 P. M. tomorrow.

Washington, Feb. 10.—With many senators now convinced President Coolidge intends to veto the McNary-Haugen bill, Senator Nye, republican, North Dakota, warned his colleagues in a speech today that this bill is a "revolutionary measure to meet a revolutionary situation."

But, he said, the bill is "not nearly so revolutionary as will be necessary if congress fails to do something for the farmer."

Picturing the desertion of the farm by discouraged men, Nye said farm owners dropped from 44,000 in 1910 to 26,000 in 1925 in his state while tenant farmers increased from 10,000 to 26,000.

Blaming the government largely for the farmers' condition today, Nye added that "enactment of the bill would restore the farmers' confidence in the government."

Meantime, on the house side, Rep.

ACCUSED OF STARVING TO DEATH HIS WIFE

Way Cross, Ga., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Oscar Hodge, accused of starving to death his wife, went on trial here today for murder.

Hodge was indicted after charity workers who visited his home testified that Mrs. Hodge was suffering from lack of food when they visited the couple shortly before her death.

A jury was selected yesterday and testimony will probably be completed today.

NOBILITY NOW FINISHES CASE IN THE COURTS

HAD AN INNING THAT LASTED CLOSE TO ELEVEN MONTHS

TITLED HEIRS OF LEITER SEEK TO REMOVE JOSEPH LEITER AS CHIEF TRUSTEE

By BERT M. DENBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Nobility has completed its inning in an American court—an inning that lasted eleven months.

Late Tuesday testimony was completed in the case in which titled heirs of the late Levi Leiter, merchant prince of early Chicago, sought to remove Joseph Leiter as chief trustee of the estate, variously estimated to have been worth from $10,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Chief of the complaining litigants was the stately Lady Marguerite, Countess of Suffolk and Berks, a daughter of the late Levi Leiter and sister of Joseph Leiter. She represented many other titled English relatives.

Closing of the case was in direct contrast to the vigorous opening. Staged in a rather common appearing American court room, the opening moments found Chicago society crowding in to hear the spicy chatter about one of the leading families in Chicago's 400.

For the first few days the court room was crowded. Names, usually appearing only in the blue book or society pages of the newspapers, were on the list of court visitors. The usual run of court fans also was at hand in Judge Dennis Sullivan's court room.

But eleven months served to lessen the interest, especially when the spicy chatter was quite limited.

Tuesday when the testimony was concluded, the litigants—including Leiter, Lady Marguerite and several other relatives—a few court attaches and several regular court fans were the only ones in the court room.

However, there is still quite a drawn out procedure before the case is concluded. The closing arguments will be started February 18 and "must be completed by March 3."

The case is based around Lady Marguerite's charges that the estate had been mismanaged under the direction of her brother and that he has profited personally to the detriment of the estate.

VINCENT ASTOR NEW DIRECTOR OF GREAT NORTHERN

Washington, Feb. 10.—(UP)—Vincent Astor of New York City was authorized by the Interstate Commerce commission today to hold a directorship in the Great Northern Railway company. Mr. Astor is a director of the Illinois Central company.

Haugen, republican, Iowa, said that both major political parties are bound by their platforms to extend relief to the farmers.

"The purpose of the proposed bill," Haugen said, "is to bring back balanced conditions between agriculture, industry and labor, as promised in the republican platform, and to stimulate the progress of the co-operative marketing movement, to establish an export board in order that the exportable surplus may not establish the price of the whole crop, as promised in the democratic platform."

GEORGE D. LA BAR APPEARS BEFORE BANK COMMITTEE

SAYS INCOMPETENT BANKERS ARE AT BOTTOM OF BANKING TROUBLES IN STATE

LITTLE FALLS, PIERZ AND LONG PRAIRIE BANKERS ALSO AT TACK PROPOSED LAW

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—(UP)—G. D. LaBar, president of the First National Bank of Brainerd, appeared before the legislative committee investigating banking conditions late Wednesday to add his voice with many others in condemnation of the proposed bank guaranty law.

Incompetent bankers are at the bottom of banking troubles in Minnesota, LaBar declared. Guaranty laws would not remedy the situation, he said, in line with other statements made before the committee.

Others who attacked the guaranty law in committee session were: Geo. Kiewell, president of the Commercial State Bank of Little Falls; A. P. Stoll, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' State Bank at Pierz, and Raymond Lee, bank cashier, Long Prairie.

Contest of Election of Sen. Erling Swenson Trown Out of Senate

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—(UP)—Contest of the election of Sen. Erling Swenson, 35th district, Minneapolis, brought by John G. Priebe, was officially thrown out of the state senate today. The body adopted the report of the elections committee approving Swenson's election.

Election of one other member will be decided upon next Tuesday when the committee considers the seating of Sen. A. L. Lennon, also of Minneapolis.

The committee will act on a resolution requesting Lennon, now under conviction on a liquor charge, to withdraw from the senate until the federal courts have either set aside or reversed his conviction. The case is now on appeal before the federal circuit court of appeals.

A bill already passed by the house, requiring railroad, express, telephone and other companies to pay the motor vehicle registration tax, was passed by the senate today. It now goes to the governor for signature.

It applies to public utility companies which pay a gross earnings tax in lieu of all other taxes. A state supreme court decision last year held that these companies need not pay the registration fee under the present motor vehicle law, and the bill passed today is to amend the present law so they must pay the fee.

Broadening of the classes of securities that savings banks in Minnesota may hold was provided in a bill introduced by Sen. C. E. Adams, Duluth. It provides that savings banks in addition to the securities now permitted may purchase bonds of railroads providing they have been outstanding at least 15 years, are secured by direct liens on main lines and interest payments have never been defaulted.

It also provides that the banks may purchase bonds of electric, gas, heat, light, telephone and telegraph companies when they are secured by first mortgages.

Sen. Frank A. Day, Fairmont, in an effort to halt chicken stealing, which he says has been rampant in Martin county, introduced a bill requiring all poultry dealers to keep accurate records of transactions which shall be open to inspection at any time by peace or law enforcement officers.

JOSEPH MILBAUER DIES AT ST. CLOUD

St. Cloud, Minn., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Joseph Milbauer, 84, last survivor of Co. G Fourth Minnesota regiment, recruited in St. Cloud in 1861, died at his home here today.

Milbauer, who had come to Minnesota from Germany as a child, joined the union forces when he was but 18 years old. He served during the entire four years of the civil war.

Funeral services will be conducted here Saturday.

SEEKS 'UNDER COVER' MEN TO AID ENFORCEMENT

Washington, Feb. 10.—(UP)—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today asked congress for "under-cover" activities in enforcement work.

The secretary sent to the house and senate a draft of a bill which authorizes expenditure of treasury funds, with the approval of the president, for use of "special disbursing agents in under-cover work."

Congress refused to allow an appropriation of $500,000 for under-cover work in the regular treasury appropriation.

Lisbon, Feb. 10.—Sixty known dead in Lisbon and probably 150 dead in Oporto today were reckoned as the greatest cost of the revolution against the Carmona dictatorship which the government this morning announced had been suppressed.

It was estimated that 850 persons had been wounded in Oporto and Lisbon, 500 of the injuries having been reported in the capital.

The government announcement said the rebels at Lisbon had surrendered unconditionally at 8 P. M. yesterday.

The Argentine consulate was among the many buildings damaged by gun fire in Lisbon.

REPORTS SO CIRCULATED IN SENATE CHAMBER

ANOTHER RUMOR THAT PRESIDENT MAY USE VETO AS CAMPAIGN ISSUE

CHAIRMAN McNARY CONFIDENT COOLIDGE WILL SIGN FARM RELIEF BILL

By PAUL R. MALLON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Feb. 10.—With reports being circulated in the senate chamber that President Coolidge will veto the pending farm price stabilization bill, farm bloc members today threatened retaliatory steps.

The unofficial word said to come direct from the White House, was given credence by republican leaders who think Mr. Coolidge will refuse to sign the McNary-Haugen bill and will go to the country next year for re-election on the issue.

Many republican members of the farm bloc met this development with a threat to campaign for another republican presidential nominee immediately. There was even talk of offering a resolution to the senate expressing its sense that no president should seek a "third" term.

Senate leaders and most members of the farm bloc, were inclined to credit the veto prediction. It was pointed out that it has long been the practice of the president to "cross the politicians" and appeal directly to the people. They believe that in accordance with his previous declarations against this type of legislation and regardless of the political exigencies of the occasion, he will decline to affix his signature.

This view is shared by practically all of the republican senate group with the exception of Chairman McNary of the senate agriculture committee and co-author of the bill. He adheres to his belief that the president will sign it.

The information caused consternation among many senate republicans. None wished to be placed in the position of criticizing the chief executive before he acts, but one midwestern republican told the United Press:

"The moment President Coolidge vetoes this bill, I know of at least eight republican senators besides myself who will go out to campaign against him and in favor of some other candidate."

Contrary to the general belief, this senator said the group of eight would not campaign for former Gov. Frank O. Lowden, Illinois, who has endorsed the farm bill. No candidate has yet been picked by the group, he said. Vice President Dawes and Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, who are supporting the farm bill, also are in line with Lowden to receive this support.

The bill came up simultaneously in both houses this afternoon. Debate was begun in the house under a rule which will permit twelve hours of discussion before a vote is taken, probably Monday. In the senate a limitation of debate goes into effect at 2 P. M. allowing no senator to speak longer than 15 minutes.

The senate will vote upon the bill at 4 P. M. tomorrow.

Washington, Feb. 10.—With many senators now convinced President Coolidge intends to veto the McNary-Haugen bill, Senator Nye, republican, North Dakota, warned his colleagues in a speech today that this bill is a "revolutionary measure to meet a revolutionary situation."

But, he said, the bill is "not nearly so revolutionary as will be necessary if congress fails to do something for the farmer."

Picturing the desertion of the farm by discouraged men, Nye said farm owners dropped from 44,000 in 1919 to 26,000 in 1925 in his state while tenant farmers increased from 10,000 to 26,000.

Blaming the government largely for the farmers' condition today, Nye said that "enactment of the bill would restore the farmers' confidence in the government."

Meantime, on the house side, Rep.

ACCUSED OF STARVING TO DEATH HIS WIFE

Way Cross, Ga., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Oscar Hodge, accused of starving to death his wife, went on trial here today for murder.

Hodge was indicted after charity workers who visited his home testified that Mrs. Hodge was suffering from lack of food when they visited the couple shortly before her death.

A jury was selected yesterday and testimony will probably be completed today.

NOBILITY NOW FINISHES CASE IN THE COURTS

HAD AN INNING THAT LASTED CLOSE TO ELEVEN MONTHS

TITLED HEIRS OF LEITER SEEK TO REMOVE JOSEPH LEITER AS CHIEF TRUSTEE

By BERT M. DENBY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Feb. 10.—Nobility has completed its inning in an American court—an inning that lasted eleven months.

Late Tuesday testimony was completed in the case in which titled heirs of the late Levi Leiter, merchant prince of early Chicago, sought to remove Joseph Leiter as chief trustee of the estate, variously estimated to have been worth from $10,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Chief of the complaining litigants was the stately Lady Marguerite, Countess of Suffolk and Berks, a daughter of the late Levi Leiter and sister of Joseph Leiter. She represented many other titled English relatives.

Closing of the case was in direct contrast to the vigorous opening. Staged in a rather common appearing American court room, the opening moments found Chicago society crowding in to hear the spicy chatter about one of the leading families in Chicago's 400.

For the first few days the court room was crowded. Names, usually appearing only in the blue book or society pages of the newspapers, were on the list of court visitors. The usual run of court fans also was at hand in Judge Dennis Sullivan's court room.

But eleven months served to lessen the interest, especially when the spicy chatter was quite limited.

Tuesday when the testimony was concluded, the litigants—including Leiter, Lady Marguerite and several other relatives—a few court attaches and several regular court fans were the only ones in the court room.

However, there is still quite a drawn out procedure before the case is concluded. The closing arguments will be started February 18 and "must be completed by March 3."

The case is based around Lady Marguerite's charges that the estate had been mismanaged under the direction of her brother and that he has profited personally to the detriment of the estate.

VINCENT ASTOR NEW DIRECTOR OF GREAT NORTHERN

Washington, Feb. 10.—(UP)—Vincent Astor of New York City was authorized by the Interstate Commerce commission today to hold a directorship in the Great Northern Railway company. Mr. Astor is a director of the Illinois Central company.

Haugen, republican, Iowa, said that both major political parties are bound by their platforms to extend relief to the farmers.

"The purpose of the proposed bill," Haugen said, "is to bring back balanced conditions between agriculture, industry and labor, as promised in the republican platform, and to stimulate the progress of the co-operative marketing movement, to establish an export board in order that the exportable surplus may not establish the price of the whole crop, as promised in the democratic platform."

GEORGE D. LA BAR APPEARS BEFORE BANK COMMITTEE

SAYS INCOMPETENT BANKERS ARE AT BOTTOM OF BANKING TROUBLES IN STATE

LITTLE FALLS, PIERZ AND LONG PRAIRIE BANKERS ALSO AT TACK PROPOSED LAW

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—(UP)—G. D. LaBar, president of the First National Bank of Brainerd, appeared before the legislative committee investigating banking conditions late Wednesday to add his voice with many others in condemnation of the proposed bank guaranty law.

Incompetent bankers are at the bottom of banking troubles in Minnesota, LaBar declared. Guaranty laws would not remedy the situation, he said, in line with other statements made before the committee.

Others who attacked the guaranty law in committee session were: Geo. Kiewell, president of the Commercial State Bank of Little Falls; A. P. Stoll, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' State Bank at Pierz, and Raymond Lee, bank cashier, Long Prairie.

Contest of Election of Sen. Erling Swenson Trown Out of Senate

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—(UP)—Swenson of the election of Sen. Erling Swenson, 35th district, Minneapolis, brought by John G. Priebe, was officially thrown out of the state senate today. The body adopted the report of the elections committee approving Swenson's election.

Election of one other member will be decided upon next Tuesday when the committee considers the seating of Sen. A. L. Lennon, also of Minneapolis.

The committee will act on a resolution requesting Lennon, now under conviction on a liquor charge, to withdraw from the senate until the federal courts have either set aside or reversed his conviction. The case is now on appeal before the federal circuit court of appeals.

A bill already passed by the house, requiring railroad, express, telephone and other companies to pay the motor vehicle registration tax, was passed by the senate today. It now goes to the governor for signature.

It applies to public utility companies which pay a gross earnings tax in lieu of all other taxes. A state supreme court decision last year held that these companies need not pay the registration fee under the present motor vehicle law, and the bill passed today is to amend the present law so they must pay the fee.

Broadening of the classes of securities that savings banks in Minnesota may hold was provided in a bill introduced by Sen. C. E. Adams, Duluth. It provides that savings banks in addition to the securities now permitted may purchase bonds of railroads providing they have been outstanding at least 15 years, are secured by direct liens on main lines and interest payments have never been defaulted.

It also provides that the banks may purchase bonds of electric, gas, heat, light, telephone and telegraph companies when they are secured by first mortgages.

Sen. Frank A. Day, Fairmont, in an effort to halt chicken stealing, which he says has been rampant in Martin county, introduced a bill requiring all poultry dealers to keep accurate records of transactions which shall be open to inspection at any time by peace or law enforcement officers.

Milbauer, who had come to Minnesota from Germany as a child, joined the union forces when he was but 18 years old. He served during the entire four years of the civil war. Funeral services will be conducted here Saturday.

Vol. 2 THURSDAY, FEB. 10, 1927 No. 8

Do you realize that February 14 is St. Valentine's Day? Remember when a little red heart with a cupid on it would thrill you for days?

We claim that shaving the back of her neck isn't half as hard as hooking her up the back used to be.

Speaking of credit reminds us of the busy doctor. Opening the door of his office he said, to the long line of patients, "Who has been waiting the longest?" A meek little coal dealer in the rear answered, "I have."

And speaking of coal, which we wasn't, we know we are enthusiastic about STAND-ARD. It is giving such splendid results that we just "done got to" boost it.

A man who brings up seven or eight children these days deserves a lot of credit. In fact, he can't get along without it.

Here lies the body of Benjamin Hurst. He slipped off the curb without looking first.

Marriage is a great game, but it always results in a tie.

More than 200,000 houses were built in 78 cities of more than 100,000 population the first six months of 1926. No, Brainerd is not included in this survey.

Never strike a man when he is down. You don't know how big he might be when he gets up!

We have a lot of sympathy for the central girls over at the Telephone Office. They give us fine service when you stop to think of it. Trouble is, not many of us stop to think.

Vol. 2 THURSDAY, FEB. 10, 1927 No. 8

Do you realize that February 14 is St. Valentine's Day? Remember when a little red heart with a cupid on it would thrill you for days?

And speaking of coal, which we wasn't, we know we are enthusiastic about STANDARD. It is giving such splendid results that we just "done got to" boost it.

More than 200,000 houses were built in 78 cities of more than 100,000 population the first six months of 1926. No, Brainerd is not included in this survey.

We claim that shaving the back of her neck isn't half as hard as hooking her up the back used to be.

A man who brings up seven or eight children these days deserves a lot of credit. In fact, he can't get along without it.

Never strike a man when he is down. You don't know how big he might be when he gets up!

Speaking of credit reminds of the busy doctor. Opening the door of his office he said, to the long line of patients, "Who has been waiting the longest?" A meek little coal dealer in the rear answered, "I have."

Here lies the body of Benjamin Hurst. He slipped off the curb without looking first.

Marriage is a great game, but it always results in a tie.

We have a lot of sympathy for the central girls over at the Telephone Office. They give us fine service when you stop to think of it. Trouble is, not many of us stop to think.

Use STANDARD COAL. It pays.

SULLIVAN WANTS TO RACE LADY SWIMMER ACROSS CATALINA

FRIENDS OF MRS. HUDDLESTON PLAN TO RAISE PURSE OF $2,500

WM. WRIGLEY, JR., SAYS HE CANNOT OFFER ANY FURTHER PRIZES

Long Beach, Calif., Feb. 10. (UP)—Henry Sullivan of Lowell, Mass., conqueror of both the English and Catalina channels, has indicated a willingness to race Mrs. Myrtle Huddleston of Long Beach across the 23-mile stretch of water separating Catalina Island from the mainland of California.

Friends of Mrs. Huddleston, who last Sunday became the first woman to swim the Catalina channel, plan to raise a $2,500 purse for the race, if it is staged.

New York, Feb. 10.—Whatever fortune accumulates from Mrs. Myrtle Huddleston's successful swim of the Catalina channel, none of it will come from William Wrigley, Jr., the millionaire gum manufacturer told the United Press today.

Wrigley sponsored the original Catalina marathon, won by George Young, with a prize of $25,000. The first woman to finish in the sea derby was to win $15,000.

"But Mrs. Huddleston didn't finish in the swim won by Young," Wrigley pointed out today. "After all, it isn't my channel and I can't keep giving prizes to anyone who swims it. We think Mrs. Huddleston got across all right, but there were no regulations to govern her swim."

"So far as I am concerned, there is no more prize money."

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 10.—Another Catalina channel race with Mrs. Henry Sullivan, wife of the famed long distance swimmer, and Mrs. Myrtle Huddleston, who recently conquered the channel, as the competitors, appeared possible today.

"When Mrs. Huddleston challenged my husband to a race," Mrs. Sullivan said, "he expressed the opinion that I could beat her. I've never participated in any long distance races, but I have stayed in water as long as 12 hours while accompanying my husband on practice swims and if he wants me to race her, I will."

To tell the truth, I got more benefit from Aurine Ear Balsam in one week than all the rest put together. On one ear I could hear nothing, now I can hear and understand words. It is a wonderful remedy. Anyone that is troubled with deafness should get Aurine and use it for it will help them as it has helped me." HEDDA HOYT TELLS—ABOUT THE SPRING GOWN

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, Feb. 10.—(UP)—The Spring gown, as shown at recent fashion displays, offers several interesting styles changes. The silhouette has a bloused bodice in many cases, hip lines are snug formed by tightly drawn tunic drapery or by self fabric girdles; sleeves are long except where the ensemble frock is concerned and front skirt fullness is being replaced by side fullness. Most of the daytime frocks use the square neck line and collars are neglected except on tailored frocks.

Among the favored materials for the daytime dress are crepe satin, silk crepe, small patterned printed silk, georgette, lightweight reps, wool crepe and wool jersey. Colors run to blues, rose-beige, gray, beige and black. Blues are especially emphasized in shades ranging from navy, hydrangea and deep purplish blues to lighter and more vivid shades. Beige will not be the old stand-by that it has been since it is thought that blues and certain grays will replace it. Two-toned frocks are emphasized with such combinations as two shades of blue, two shades of rose, blue and violet, black and white or flesh, navy and gray or beige and black and scarlet leading. Figured silks in small patterns are well liked.

Spring's ensembles will consist of finger-tip length jackets worn with sleeveless frocks, of seven-eighths-length coats worn with contrasting colored frocks, and of long coats worn with harmonizing silk frocks.

The jacket ensemble is to be the most important one this year because of its newness and youthfulness.

Two-piece tailored suits will be much more prominent this year than evil one a being almost human in his every move, yet with a swiftness, a sleekness, a devilishness that is not in any creature of this earth.

last. They are already being worn under long cloth coats in New York. Jackets are generally of waist-length and they may be of the straight boxed variety or slightly fitted. Belts are used on many models, either extending all the way around or across the back only. Great attention is placed upon pockets which are often very large and unusually trimmed. Braid or grosgrain ribbon outline lapels, pockets and borders of most tailored jackets. Skirts continue short and some houses are selling two skirts to a jacket.

WATCHING OUR STEP

THE Industrial News Bureau, The Manufacturer, calls attention to a fact in our life patent to all keen observers, for instance, the man who builds a hundred-million-dollar industry is often looked upon with suspicion, while the man who destroys a hundred-million-dollar industry gets pages of publicity, and lays the foundation for a political future.

The popular way to fame seems to be to propose some revolutionary scheme which would destroy an industry or deprive large numbers of individuals of their personal or property rights. Writers or politicians who would upset our whole business structure, but who can guarantee no practical substitute for established practices, get wide publicity and are heralded as brainy men and great friends of the people.

The executive who has to figure out practical plans for producing and distributing a product, who has to show a profit on his operations in order to employ labor at good wages and secure capital for additions and betterments to his plant, who has to pay the taxes to carry out every scheme that is proposed which makes it harder for him to do business, is too often painted as an enemy of the people.

What a contrast! One man is a non-producer, a non-employer and a tax-absorber. The other is a producer, an employer and a tax-payer. The first is heralded with brass bands, and his utterances occupy pages of newspaper and magazine space. The other passes by unnoticed. If the first man with his flowery speeches and impractical ideas, ran for public office as an opponent of the producer, the tax-payer and the employer, he would probably be elected on the ground that he did not represent "big business", as did his opponent. The road to public popularity is too often a path to destruction, because advocating constructive policies is not sensational.

As a people we are not quite so easily fooled as we used to be, but we must watch our step if we prevent the non-producer in politics from crippling our industrial machine which is now firing on all six cylinders as it never did before.

THE PLEASURES OF BEING A KID

It's a whole lot more fun being a kid these days than in the old times. Ask your grandfather if he ever had a chance to enter his dog in a dog derby and win a sack of flour or a ham.

A look at the display of prizes shown in the Brainerd Dispatch window indicates that the winners will bring home prizes which will delight the whole family. No mother ever looked askance at a sack of well known flour, nor at a ham which will serve as a Sunday dinner and several lunches too.

The American Legion has put a whole lot of work and thought into this dog derby and we hope it will be a grand success. True, the winner will not get as much publicity as swimming the English channel or Catalina, but he gets a free trip to the Duluth Winter Frolics show and that is quite an honor and a day of recreation in its way.

Harness makers of the town report a wonderful increase in business fashioning and repairing harnesses for dogs. One lad is said to have trained his dog by hanging a "hot dog" at the end of a fish pole and starting out Rover after the dangling sausage. Other lads are achieving success in straight away single races. Dog temperaments, however, are to be reckoned with, and the advent of a sausage as a race stimulator may set the whole dog world into fast motion and thereby accelerating the speed records for the course.

The winter has dealt kindly with the race program by furnishing plenty of snow. Last year the Legion committee scanned the horizon and the almanacs and prayed for snow to cover the course. This year we need one of Charlie Babcock's plows to clear the race course, should it snow heavily.

We know how every kid entered is planning on winning something and we thank the merchants of the city, in behalf of the Legion, for contributing so generously to bring happiness to the kids of the city.

THE DOVE OF PEACE

THE dove of peace, flying about with its olive branch, has as hard a time finding a real resting place as when Noah sent out the bird from the ark.

Our own United States is performing the thankless job of a traffic cop down in Central America and is also gathering its marines to protect lives and property in China. Incidentally a baby revolt was just put down in an island of the Philippines.

China is putting along with a war which may soon plunge the whole country into civil warfare.

Portugal just completed a short and bloody revolution, the government troops being victorious last night.

England has massed a formidable army and navy for service in China.

Mutterings of internal troubles spout out from many countries. In spite of the desire of parliaments and conferences and congresses for peace, it looks like the Irish paradox, that we shall never have peace until we fight to get it.

And it also brings to mind the fact that until the human nature of all of us here and to come later is altered, we shall continue to occasionally have need to use an army and a navy.

Even the most rabid pacifist has never advanced the idea that in home affairs we abolish our police force.

We noticed a window display in Minneapolis last week which caused considerable attention. It referred to the bonds of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. and the fact that a liberal investment in them enabled you to pay your telephone rentals with the dividends you drew.

MANY Eastern newspapers believe that the shadow of censorship menaces the press because of publication of Browning divorce details. The daring pictures published startled even blasé New Yorkers. In consequence a wave of editorial revulsion has swept the nation.

THE right of a newspaper to refuse to publish advertising that is misleading, untrue or otherwise in violation of ethical standards has been upheld by Supreme Court Justice John B. M. Stephens, seventh judicial district of New York.

Chas. W. Eastman of Fergus Falls has bought 500 acres of land in the vicinity of Brainerd, according to dispatches from that place to the Minneapolis papers, and he intends to establish milk routes, beginning with March 1.

Ward Jewett has resigned his position as stenographer in the office of Agent W. D. McKay of the Northern Pacific to accept another in the office at the Minneapolis Transfer. As soon as a successor is hired Mr. Jewett will leave for the Twin Cities.

Ed. Riatz, wife and child arrived from Fountain City, Wis., last week to visit relatives. They have since decided to settle in Brainerd.

Mrs. S. L. Sleeper left for Duluth this afternoon for a short visit.

There will be a meeting of stone masons, plasterers, brick layers, plumbers, tinners, painters and other tradesmen at Trade and Labor hall, on South Sixth street at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon for the purpose of discussing the advisability of organizing a trades union of the above named crafts. All workmen are cordially invited to attend.

W. E. McEwen, secretary of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor will address the meeting. Carpenters meet at same place Monday evening. All carpenters are requested to be present.

Dr. Courtney of the N. P. Sanitarium continues to improve and will be able to be out in a few days.

New York, Feb. 10. — (UP) — Thomas A. Edison tomorrow will be 80 years old.

Ford was expected at Tom Edison's house early tomorrow morning and he's going to stay all night.

At noon Edison will have a birthday dinner with the Edison pioneers, a group of men associated with him in the early days of his work.

Little do men perceive what solitude is, and how far it extendeth. For a crowd is not company and faces are but a gallery of pictures and talk but a tinkling of cymbals, where there is no love. The Latin adage meeteth with it a little: A great town is a great solitude.—Bacon.

WATCHING OUR STEP

THE Industrial News Bureau, The Manufacturer, calls attention to a fact in our life patent to all keen observers, for instance, the man who builds a hundred-million-dollar industry is often looked upon with suspicion, while the man who destroys a hundred-million-dollar industry gets pages of publicity, and lays the foundation for a political future.

The popular way to fame seems to be to propose some revolutionary scheme which would destroy an industry or deprive large numbers of individuals of their personal or property rights. Writers or politicians who would upset our whole business structure, but who can guarantee no practical substitute for established practices, get wide publicity and are heralded as brainy men and great friends of the people.

The executive who has to figure out practical plans for producing and distributing a product, who has to show a profit on his operations in order to employ labor at good wages and secure capital for additions and betterments to his plant, who has to pay the taxes to carry out every scheme that is proposed which makes it harder for him to do business, is too often painted as an enemy of the people.

What a contrast! One man is a non-producer, a non-employer and a tax-absorber. The other is a producer, an employer and a tax-payer. The first is heralded with brass bands, and his utterances occupy pages of newspaper and magazine space. The other passes by unnoticed. If the first man with his flowery speeches and impractical ideas, ran for public office as an opponent of the producer, the tax-payer and the employer, he would probably be elected on the ground that he did not represent "big business", as did his opponent. GEORGIA PEACH IS A YOUNGSTER AGAIN

TY COBB IN A NEW START WITH ATHLETICS

PHILOSOPHIZES A BIT ABOUT BASEBALL IN U. P. INTERVIEW

TELLS HOW HE BROKE INTO THE GAME, LOOKS FORWARD TO FUTURE

Ty Cobb, veteran of 22 years in organized baseball, who has been vindicated of charges of scandal which led to his resignation from the Detroit club, has just signed up with the Philadelphia Athletics for the largest salary in baseball. After 22 years of playing, he is starting with a new club, a new determination, and, in short, has become a baseball "youngster" again, despite his years.

He has given the United Press an interview in which he philosophizes a bit about baseball, tells how he broke into the game, how, as a lad, he developed his famous "fall-away slide," and looks forward to the future of baseball.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—Ty Cobb, the veteran who has become the latest recruit of the Philadelphia Athletics, at the biggest salary in baseball, sat back in his chair and gave baseball a bird's eye view for the benefit of the United Press.

He thinks the game is destined to go on and on, with changes here and there, but still the same old game.

He believes that baseball is unique in its method of recruiting players. He sees romance in the way baseball reaches out to the remote sandlots of the country, puts its fingers on youngsters who show outstanding skill, and brings them from obscurity to the cities, to become idols of thousands and grow rich.

He thinks the player owes much to the game and more to the fan.

And he harbors no resentment for the unfortunate incidents which connected his name with scandal charges, but instead takes great satisfaction in the vindication he received and for which he gives all credit to the baseball-following public.

"The greatest thing in the game," Cobb said, "is a player's appreciation of his work, and the enormous debt he owes to the sport that gives him a livelihood."

"Baseball is the only thing that seeks the man."

"The railroads, the universities, the big industries, seldom go out after the material to fill their ranks. Banks and a few concerns do, but rarely."

But baseball, on the other hand, is constantly seeking recruits. It sends its scouts into the small town and it brings its men from the crossroads and the sandlots of every corner of the country; takes them to the large cities, and gives them a chance to make good. If they make good, they make money.

"The necessity is for the youngster and the veteran to put into the game everything he has to give. Every last ounce of strength, enthusiasm and brain power."

"In baseball, the player must first love the game."

"Then he must respect the sport, its traditions and never for a moment lose sight of the debt he owes to the fans, to his club and to the game."

"Ball players may be born, but few of them ever arrive at the top without a constant study of the game and of their own defects, and a constant fight to overcome their weaknesses."

"When I first entered the big leagues, I watched the base runners sliding. They would come in on a bag head or feet first. They started the slide 10 or 12 feet from the base. A fielder, I thought, had plenty of time, in that kind of a slide, to adjust himself for the runner and knowing just about where he would be, to tag him out."

"The runner, as I analyzed it, sacrificed the initiative as soon as he started his slide, and that initiative was surrendered too soon."

"I got to thinking about the 'fall away' slide, where you come up standing almost to the bag, and then fall away, catching the base with your foot. Up to the last second the fielder taking the throw has no exact idea which way you may fall. He sees you coming in head up, and naturally is less self-possessed, for you have not 'tipped your hand,' and so the runner has that additional advantage."

Cobb stopped a moment to interpose that "retain the initiative as much as possible" is one of the big factors in making a baseball player.

"Well, anyway," he went, "I got to doting out that 'fall-away' slide, and in the winter I put a sliding pit in my back yard down in Augusta and practiced it until I had perfected the technique.

"When the season opened the next year, I began using the 'fall-away' slide. The fans at first didn't like it, and a lot of the players didn't like it, either. But it really was a safer slide, as far as injury to the baseman went, and after the players around the circuit got used to it, many of them took it up."

"All that about the slide is simply in line with my belief that one must constantly study the game and constantly practice to improve."

Cobb, known as a hard fighter in the diamond, told something of the philosophy which makes him fight. "The deportment of a player throughout his career is the best protection he has when scandal talk bobs up," said Cobb.

"I have always played my hardest and done my best to make the game for the club and the fans. In the late unpleasantness, I found that the most substantial vindication I had came from the fans."

"I wouldn't swap the verdict of the fans for all the damages a dozen courts could give me."

He couldn't see any immediate need for reforms in the game.

"Things will come and go," he said looking into the future. "There will be innovations that will be tried out, and some of them will be kept, and a lot of others will be worthless and will be discarded."

"Leaders of the game will meet the needs for anything as the need arises."

"I've got lots of confidence in baseball and the structure on which it is built."

Cobb said he was feeling fine and he appeared to be in splendid physical condition.

"Outdoor exercise and lots of it during the winter and out of the baseball season has kept me in shape for 22 years," he said.

COLD SPRINGS COMES HERE ON SATURDAY WITH ALL-STAR LINE-UP

The Rainbows will journey to Aitkin tonight to meet the fast and much-touted Co. B. team of this place, in a game that ought to show the chances of the Rainbows against Cold Springs on Saturday night.

The home guards of Aitkin rarely leave their home floor for any basketball game. They play almost entirely on their own floor, and have run up an enviable string of victories. The men making the trip are as yet undetermined, but it's a cinch that the men who do make the jaunt will be the most determined bunch of basketeers ever to leave Brainerd for a foreign game.

On Saturday night the Rainbows will engage the Cold Springs all star cast in a game that will make the thrills run up and down the pines of all fans who come. The visiting team is made up of college and high school players, and the game will be the feature of this week. There is no other game in Brainerd this week.

All Stars 20, B. H. S. 10

The invincible Brainerd girls basketball sextet met defeat for the first time in three years last night at the hands of the fast Flying Queens to the tune of 20 to 10.

The first half was featured by much fumbling and wild passing, but both teams soon found themselves, and a terrific battle was on. The Flying Queens displayed wonderful form since the last fray two weeks ago. Every girl on the squad was out to win, and they upset the "dope" entirely for the high rooters.

Captain Beggs, the old standby, was unable to start in the regular line-up, but played the last two minutes of the contest. Even though her time in the game was short, she played a good brand of basketball and if "Jiggs" had been up to par, the tide would have been changed with her usual bombardment of counters.

At the close of the first quarter, it looked as though the high school would continue their winning streak, but after play was resumed, the Flying Queens went back for strict revenge. Fogelstrom sunk the spheroid for three baskets, which closed the half 11-5, the Queens holding down the heavier end.

During the last half, the Independents kept the edge over their rivals. The five points chalked up by Trask, aided by a basket from Hollingsworth, and Fogelstrom, clinched the game for the Flying Queens.

Scoring results:
Field goals—Lewis, 2; Kleven, 1; Hollingsworth, 4; Trask, 3.

Free throws—Lewis, 1; Molstad, 1; Alzant, 1; Trask, 2.

POSITION OF JESS SMITH IS DESCRIBED

WHAT HE HAD TO DO WITH THE
GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS
IN 1921

WHEN HARRY M. DAUGHERTY,
HIS INTIMATE FRIEND, WAS
ATTORNEY GENERAL

By C. J. V. MURPHY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 10.—The position the late Jess Smith occupied in the affairs of government in 1921, when Harry M. Daugherty, his intimate friend, was attorney general, was described in federal district court today at the conspiracy trial of Daugherty and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian.

Louis J. Bailey, an agent of the department of justice, testified that as early as the inauguration of President Harding on March 4, 1921, Smith seemed to be a person of "authority," though without a portfolio or official position.

The witness told of the close relationship between Smith and Daugherty.

The government is trying Daugherty and Miller in connection with approval of a $7,000,000 claim presented the alien property office by Richard Merton, German metal magnate. For speedy passage of the claim, Merton paid a $441,000 "fee" to the late John T. King, Connecticut, republican leader. King introduced Merton to Smith, who in turn arranged an interview with Miller.

REOPEN IMPEACHMENT CHARGES AGAINST JUDGE FRANK COOPER

Washington, Feb. 10.—(UP)—The house judiciary committee today decided to reopen its investigation of impeachment charges filed against Federal Judge Frank Cooper of the northern district of New York, by Representatives La Guardia, republican, New York, and Celler, democrat, New York.

The committee announced it would hear Cooper, R. O. Merrick, prohibition head in New York at the time the jurist was alleged to have developed a scheme to trap rum runners, and Elisha Hanson, Cooper's counsel.

Chairman Graham, republican, Pennsylvania, instructed Hanson to proceed first, discussing only the legal aspects of the case as raised by La Guardia.

WILL SEEK AID FROM GENERAL PUBLIC

Washington, Feb. 10.—(UP)—For the first time in history the Smithsonian institution will call upon the general public to contribute towards its continuance, Sen. Smoot, republican, Utah, a regent of the Smithsonian, said today after a white house call.

President Coolidge and other regents of the institution will meet tomorrow for a luncheon and meeting to select the successor to Dr. Charles D. Walcott, who died yesterday, and to formulate the new policy of the administration.

A Wise Choice

"I will grant you one wish," said the good fairy.

"Can you make me a millionaire?" asked the youth.

"I can, but with the usual accompaniments of dyspepsia, worry over your investments, indigestion over your income tax and that tired feeling."

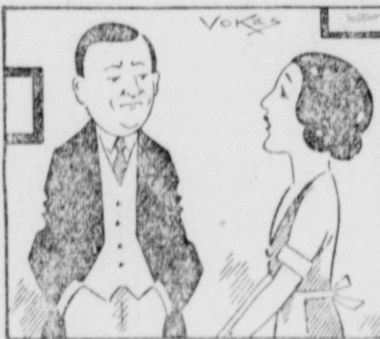

"Give me a ticket to the football game," exclaimed the youth, "and call it square."

Wives Welcome Polygamy

The first wife usually is the head wife in the African jungle and her rule is unquestioned except on those rare occasions when a man actually feels some glimmer of affection for one of his wives, and promotes her to head of the harem.

Polygamy not only is accepted by the women, it is favored by them. For one thing, each new wife proportionately reduces the burden of the others. Doctor Fowler attended a palaver at which an only wife through her brother, petitioned the chief to compel her husband to take on more. She said the job was too much for one woman.

70 TO 100 LIVES LOST IN HEAVY SNOWS OF JAPAN

Tokio, Feb. 10.—(UP)—From 70 to 100 lives have been lost due to the unprecedented snowfall in northern Japan, latest reports reaching here today said.

The prefecture at Niigata was surrounded by 20 feet of snow. Entire houses were buried under drifts or snow slides from the mountains.

The government was sending regiments of troops to aid in the rescue work.

Tokio, Feb. 10.—(UP)—One hundred and three persons have been killed, and ten today were reported missing in the prefectures of Igata, Toyama, and Fukui, where unprecedented snowfall has occurred during the last three days.

MACHINE GUN BIRGER' FACING MURDER CHARGE

Mount Vernon, Ill., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Charles Birger, the "machine gun Charley" of southern Illinois gang fame, must face a charge of murdering Mayor Joe Adams of West City at Benton, it was decided in circuit court here today.

The court over-ruled a petition for a writ of habeas corpus and Birger—minus his machine gun and other army trappings—was started for Benton.

Birger had dodged going to Benton since late in December when the indictment was voted against him. He even resisted being taken from the Saline county jail yesterday by sitting calmly in the jail cell fingering a machine gun.

Seeks Abolishing Workmen's Compensation Board of State

St. Paul, Feb. 10.—(UP)—The workmen's compensation board would be abolished under a bill introduced in the house late Wednesday by Rep. Guy Dilley, St. Paul.

Proposed action follows a controversy which developed a few months ago between the board and the Minnesota Employers' association during hearings of the applications of the insurance companies for an increased rate of compensation risks.

Protests against the board for permitting the rise in rates was filed with Gov. Theodore Christianson by representatives of the Employers' association during December. At that time it was intimated that a rehearing would be ordered.

Because no executive order followed, according to proponents of the bill, this action is being taken in order to place the rate-fixing right in the hands of the state insurance department.

Meanwhile an innocent bill to restrict working hours of women in Minnesota was virtually turned into dynamite at the public hearing before the house committee on public welfare in a night meeting.

More than 200 women, club members, teachers and workers from all fields crowded the house chamber during the hearing.

Mrs. K. A. Kingsley, Minneapolis, representative of the National Women's an's party, declared the measure would restrict labor of women until they would be unable to get the kind of work they desired.

Miss Louise E. Schultz, superintendent of the women and children's division of the state industrial commission, stated that women of the state were objecting to long hours.

Battery Service Man Tells Experience

John T. Usherwood, 1113 6th Ave., S. W., Fairbault, Minn., had painful experience. Now in tip-top shape; gained 10 lbs., and tells how Tanlac helped him.

"For six years I was a sick man," said Mr. Usherwood recently. "Food felt like a lump in my stomach. I grew peevish and lost all interest in life around me. Even the lightest food disagreed with me, and restful sleep was out of the question."

"I had drowsy headaches most of the time and felt dragged and played out. Between loss of sleep and loss of appetite, I could hardly get around. Two years of that nearly wrecked me."

"Since taking Tanlac I've put on 10 lbs. of firm flesh. Now I'm 'on my toes' again. I eat as I please, and never miss a meal. Sleep? I sleep like a top! I'll tell the world that Tanlac is the most wonderful tonic I've ever known of."

Mr. Usherwood is but one of thousands helped to rugged health by Tanlac. In our files are over a hundred thousand letters from grateful folks who credit Tanlac for their vigorous health. It is nature's own remedy made from roots, herbs and barks. Your own druggist has Tanlac. Over 52 million bottles already sold.

POSITION OF JESS SMITH IS DESCRIBED

WHAT HE HAD TO DO WITH THE
GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS
IN 1921

WHEN HARRY M. DAUGHERTY,
HIS INTIMATE FRIEND, WAS
ATTORNEY GENERAL

By C. J. V. MURPHY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 10.—The position of the late Jess Smith occupied in the affairs of government in 1921, when Harry M. Daugherty, his intimate friend, was attorney general, was described in federal district court today at the conspiracy trial of Daugherty and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian.

Louis J. Bailey, an agent of the department of justice, testified that as early as the inauguration of President Harding on March 4, 1921, Smith seemed to be a person of "authority," though without a portfolio or official position.

The witness told of the close relationship between Smith and Daugherty.

The government is trying Daugherty and Miller in connection with approval of a $7,000,000 claim presented the alien property office by Richard Merton, German metal magnate.

For speedy passage of the claim, Merton paid a $441,000 "fee" to the late John T. King, Connecticut, republican leader. King introduced Merton to Smith, who in turn arranged an interview with Miller.

Battery Service Man Tells Experience

John T. Usherwood, 1113 6th Ave., S. W., Fairbank, Minn., had painful experience. Now in tip-top shape; gained 10 lbs., and tells how Tanlac helped him.

"For six years I was a sick man," said Mr. Usherwood recently. "Food felt like a lump in my stomach. I grew peevish and lost all interest in life around me. Even the lightest food disagreed with me, and restful sleep was out of the question."

"I had drowsy headaches most of the time and felt dragged and played out. Between loss of sleep and loss of appetite, I could hardly get around. Two years of that nearly wrecked me."

"Since taking Tanlac I've put on 10 lbs. of firm flesh. Now I'm 'on my toes' again. I eat as I please, and never miss a meal. Sleep? I sleep like a top! I'll tell the world that Tanlac is the most wonderful tonic I've ever known of."

Mr. Usherwood is but one of thousands helped to rugged health by Tanlac. In our files are over a hundred thousand letters from grateful folks who credit Tanlac for their vigorous health. It is nature's own remedy made from roots, herbs and barks. Your own druggist has Tanlac. Over 52 million bottles already sold.

While walking home from the avenue N. E. was attacked by a man believed to be insane, on Kindred street near the tracks.

A man answering the description

early this morning by Police Officer Swanson on the complaint of pedestrians that an insane man was "loose."

The man who gave his name as

SPEAKERS AT NIGHT SCHOOL

W. C. Cobb Asked Questions Regarding History and Government of U. S.

G. B. FALCONER SPOKE

Gave Interesting Information on the
U. S. Post Office
Department

W. C. Cobb, superintendent of Brainerd schools, and George B.
Falconer, of the Post Office Department talked to the students of the night school last Tuesday.

Mr. Cobb asked questions regarding the history and government of the United States and Minnesota which the students answered quite creditably having been drilled in that particular phase the last six weeks.

Mr. Cobb touched many points which were of interest to them regarding the three branches of government, the Supreme Court, the Cabinet officers, the U. S. Territories, the Revolutionary War, the Civil War, the presidents of the U. S., also Minnesota industries and cities.

Mr. Falconer spoke of this post office department as the greatest single business of the world today.
The postman is usually a welcome incident to all but few realize the tremendous organization he represents.

Mail has travelled by way of horseback, riders, coaches and pony express to the faster methods of today, both by mail and air service. It takes 34 hours for mail to reach San Francisco from New York by air service.

There are 50,000 post offices in the U. S. today, he said, with 300,- 000 people working in the post office department.

The Postal Savings department was organized to encourage thrift having the entire resources of this great nation to insure its safety. Mr.
Falconer stated.

"The e are four classes of mail,"
Mr. Falconer continued, the first class letters; the second, newspapers, and magazines; the third class, the printed circulars and the fourth class, parcel post. The parcel post is divided into zones. The first zone is a radius of 50 miles, the second, 150 miles, the third, 300 miles.

"First class mail can be registered at a very low cost. Not one letter in thousands is lost but to insure safety, addresses should be written plainly with the return address always given."

Speakers and organizations who ake an interest in giving instructive and entertaining information for good citizenship are appreciated.

SCOUTMASTER

James Templeton of Scout Troop No.

J. ZANDERS JR. TOASTMASTER

Callahan Among Speakers
Last Night

Last night was a gala event in the history of Scout Troop No. 3 of N. E.
Brainerd. Taking part in the 17th anniversary week of the Boy Scouts of America, they surprised their scoutmaster, James Templeton, at their meeting place, on the second floor of the Northeast Brainerd hose house.

The boys worked like Trojans to make the party a success and when Mr. Templeton arrived three tables had been arranged with dishes and piled high with tempting food. Mr.
Templeton was taken completely by surprise and at first could not comprehend the vision before his eyes.
The 11 boys of the troop and several dads were present.

After games had been played platform space was arranged for President S. R. Adair, Scout Executive B.
Perry Newton, Scoutmaster "Jim"
Templeton and Albert O. Anderson.
John Zanders, Jr., presided and acted as toastmaster. John seems to be naturally gifted as a speaker and performed nobly in his impromptu role. He called on Scout Roger Callahan, who in turn, presented "Jim"
with a token, on behalf of the boys, to show their appreciation of the work he has done for them and as a further inducement to have him continue as their scoutmaster. Roger's speech was expertly delivered and stamped him as an able spoke-man.

While "Jim" was collecting his thoughts, S. R. Adair, president of the Crow Wing Area council, spoke briefly and expressed pleasure at being able to be with the boys and at the banquet.

Mr. Templeton was next and told of the great pleasure he took in working with the boys and although it took a great deal of time "it was worth it."

Roger Callahan responded after which B. Perry Newton congratulated the scouts on their new meeting place and expressed thanks to the city council and the firemen for the privilege of letting the boys use the

SULTAN OF SWAT MAY QUIT THE GAME ENTIRELY

BABE RUTH WILL RETURN UN-SIGNED NEW YORK
YANKEE CONTRACT

CALLED FOR $52,000 A YEAR
SAME AMOUNT AS LAST YEAR

Hollywood, Cal., Feb. 10.—(UP)—Baseball may have to get along without its "sultan of SWAT," in the future, Babe Ruth declared today.

The famous home-run king said he would return unsigned the contract he has received from the New York Yankees and that he might "quit baseball altogether" unless the club offers more liberal terms.

The contract sent him called for $52,000 this year, the same amount he received last season, Ruth, who is in Hollywood working on a movie picture, said.

"I think that the New York club used exceedingly poor judgment in offering me the identical sum that I received for last season," the Babe declared, "and I have no intention of signing on such a basis."

"I don't care to mention how much I expect to get for my services, but if the Yankee management refuses to meet my terms I may get out of baseball altogether."

"I don't know what I will do if I quit baseball but I'm not going to worry about that until I see what the Yankee management does."

Ruth, however, has already started training, that is, reducing, for a long summer grind on the diamond.

He would not comment on report that Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, would refuse to let him report for spring training until he had signed the contract offered him.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 10.—The record salary given Ty Cobb by the Philadelphia Athletics for 1927 and a cryptic announcement by Col. Jacob Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees, have reawakened interest in the contract which soon will be offered Babe Ruth.

Ruppert had his little say when he told sports writers that none of his players would be permitted to report to the training camp of the Yankees at St. Petersburg until he had signed a contract.

While Herb Pennock, the slender pitcher, also has been unable to agree upon his annual wage the announcement of the colonel was believed to be aimed directly at Ruth, now making a movie on the Pacific coast.

The Babe has about three weeks to finish posing for the camera and get his contract difficulties ironed out. The last detachment of Yanks will leave for St. Petersburg on March 5, and the Babe's movie work will stop on Feb. 25. That means the Babe must hop to New York from the coast, talk with Ruppert and prepare to leave for the south—all within eight days.

Ruppert insisted he has not conferred with his star slugger since the close of the season and hence Ruth cannot yet be classed as a holdout. His three-year contract calling for $52,000 yearly has expired and indications were that the Bambino will not be backward in demanding a considerably larger figure.

With Cobb drawing down between $60,000 and $75,000 from the Athletics it is conceivable Ruth will ask as high as $100,000 for one season's work or $75,000 a year for three years. And the answer from Ruppert, who like all owners of pennant winning ball clubs is harassed by requests for salary boosts, may be "try and get it."

The sympathy of fandom is with the Babe. If Ty Cobb is worth any where near $75,000 to the Philadelphia club, Ruth is worth at least $100,000 to the Yanks.

Sooner or later Col. Jake and Babe will reach agreement and those who remember Ruth's training difficulties in the past argue that the owner will be thinking astutely if he decided it shall be sooner. If Ruth is barred from the training camp because of salary bickering the effectiveness of himself and his team in the early part of the season will be hampered.

The Babe, at 33, evidently is planning an old age free from financial care. He has sent $32,000 from the coast to the Bank of Manhattan company here as part of a $100,000 trust und to frighten wolves from the Ruthian door when his baseball career is ended.

Ruth said he expected to bank $50,000 more by June 1, and complete the fund before the end of the year. That optimism indicates that he figure of $100,000 for a season's day has occupied his winter dreams.

OTTO REISELT AND KIECKHEFER ALONE IN UNDEFEATED CLASS

Ford discussed his hobby—old fashioned dances—deprecatd jazz and assured his interviewers that "the flapper is all right."

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for only 75 cents. This is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides no one can tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. —Adt.

TAKE SALTS IF RHEUMATISM IS BOTHERING YOU

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts to Get Rid of Toxic Acid

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat no sweets for awhile, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid or body waste matter, and is often generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this poison from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this toxic acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove waste and stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to rid the blood of these rheumatic poisons.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

Look at him now with his robust frame, his healthy color and sparkling eyes—and just watch him eat.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for only 75 cents. This is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Advt.

TAKE SALTS IF RHEUMATISM IS BOTHERING YOU

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts to Get Rid of Toxic Acid

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat no sweets for awhile, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid or body waste matter, and is often generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this poison from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this toxic acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove waste and stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to rid the blood of these rheumatic poisons.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.
